One bus accommodates 30 people. Tour fee includes admittance fee to the temples. Fee schedule is listed to the left.

To register for the tour, complete the appropriate section on the Gala registration form. Registration on the day of the tour will not be accepted. You may choose to get off the bus at Kyoto Station after the tour. (Full payment required)

Post-Gala Program Structure/Function, Numbers and CHOICES

The Post-Gala program with Daniel will be held at the Ark Hotel Osaka on Sunday, May 3 through Tuesday, May 5. This program is a new look at integrating the 6 Elements with Structure/Function, the Behavioral Barometer and Numbers. The emphasis is on the Trait Areas, what they mean, and how they interact with the Control Cycle, the Universal Denials, and the Universal Truths.

This is a synthesis of our thinking and experience with clients since the creation of The 6th Element. This program offers you the opportunity to defuse the Universal Denials. Open the door to the Awareness of the positive possibles for the Life you truly want to live.

Pre-requisite: Adolescence, Maturity & "Love"

To All Who Love The Work Of Three In One Concepts
We offer you a heartfelt invitation to attend Gala 2009
in Kyoto, Japan, Wednesday, April 29 - Saturday, May 2, 2009.
Theme: "Midline" - Your Essential Nature
The Gala Program: "MIDLINE" - Your Essential Nature

You know about the Universal Denials. This program is about the Universal Truths and the Essential CHOICES that bring your "A"s and "C"s through the Oneness of Understanding.

AWARENESS, through the power of CHOICE - CHOICE, through the power of AWARENESS - is the key to the HOLOGRAM (wholeness) of Three In One Concepts, and the key to the WHOLENESS (hologram) of your Life.

This Gala promises to be the most significant Gala, since the first Gala in 1994. Gala 2000, produced and organized by Emiko Matsuda, was a spectacular success. Gala 2009 promises to be more than its equal.

2009 adds up to an eleven - the number of double new beginnings in Relationships.

Emiko, Toshio, Anastazyia, Gordon, and I welcome you to Gala 2009 to celebrate all of our new relationship with you and with the Work itself.

As Always,

Daniel

A WELCOME FROM THE SPONSOR OF GALA 2009

It gives me great pleasure to announce that the Three In One Concepts Gala and attendant festivities will return to Kyoto, April 29 through May 2, 2009.

This conference has been held annually since 1994, and the first Gala ever held outside of the United States was Gala 2000 in Kyoto. Many friends joined us from all over the world, and the Japanese people learned they had peers everywhere. They also realized that the work has its basis on "knowing" beyond words and that we all have the same mind and heart to pursue our essential purpose in this life, no matter where we live.

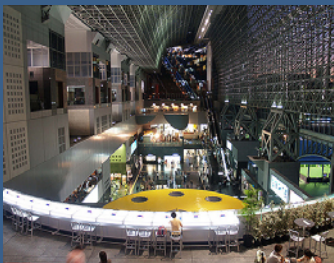

Encouraged by the enthusiasm of the people who attended the last Gala in Kyoto, I decided to sponsor Gala 2009, which will feature, among other things, Daniel Whiteside's new program on Midline, plus dinner parties with dancing, photo opportunities and various performances planned to delight and entertain our guests.

Three In One Concepts' new President, Anastazyia Wada, will explain her vision of the future and give us this rare opportunity to know and understand each other more deeply. When we all get in touch with our Midline, and start to move from there, new potentials of the work will emerge, ideas that exist but have not yet been fully developed.

If you are just learning about Three In One Concepts, bring your friends and family members and show them how it works. We welcome all - old friends and new - to join in this great festivity, Gala Kyoto 2009.

Sincerely,

Emiko Matsuda

Testimonials

For those of you who are not familiar with the Gala and/or did not attend Gala 2009, we have asked a few of our friends for their comments.

MARIE-LOUISE MARTY – Faculty Member (Italy)

Kyoto is such a wonderful city. I love the beautiful temples and wonderful gardens. In 2000, we were taken very early one morning to a temple where monks lit a fire and burned pieces of wood where people had written their problems. I can still hear their rhythmic singing. In 2009, I will prepare my own list with old unresolved matters that needs to be burnt and finally laid to rest. Until we meet, best wishes to all!

WARREN STAGG – Faculty Member (India)

I love it when the Gala is in Japan. It gives me a reason to visit one of my favorite places. The people are friendly and gracious and the country itself is beautiful. The temples are an expression of tranquility and meditative purpose. Artistically Japan is in a world of its own. I love to spend time in the Kyoto train station, which houses one of my favorite murals, one that you must see if you are interested in art. It's incredible. I hope to see you there for Gala 2009. It will be an experience that will be with you forever. See you soon.

GABRIELE ULBRICH – Faculty Member (Austria) and ROLAND ULBRICH – Advanced Instructor

We attended Gala 2000 in Kyoto and it was an extraordinary experience. The hospitality was sensational and discovering a totally different culture was a great adventure. If you are thinking to join us, do not think twice. It will be an unforgettable treat for all your senses – for your outer senses (see – touch – eat) as well as for your inner senses (smell – spirit – feel) as well as for your ESP (congruent with all times). We both look forward to Gala 2009 and to meeting our Japanese Three In One 'family' again.

ZOE KWAKKEL – Specialized Trainer (Netherlands)

In 1999, I attended my first Gala in Las Vegas. It was an amazing experience - people (my peers in One Brain) from all over the world had gathered together to celebrate our Work and to update our knowledge. It was because of this first experience, I decided to attend my second Gala, which was in Kyoto, where once again I was impressed and amazed at the power of the One Brain System, especially when Daniel talked about Structure/Function, and I understood and reconnected with the Universal Language of Touch.

Our entire time in Kyoto, was a marvelous experience – everything from the delicately and beautifully gift-wrapped items to the tea-ceremony in the temple – all of which I will treasure forever. I knew back then, one day I would return to the beautiful country again. So, I am looking forward to seeing all of you at Gala 2009, once again in Kyoto.

MARION LANE – Los Angeles (USA)

There is no country in the world like Japan. From the moment I landed at the vast and beautiful Osaka Airport, I was impressed with everything that surrounded me. I was told that Japan was very expensive, but I did not find that to be true. I bought many things for myself and gifts to bring home for friends and family. Every place I went, I was met with courtesy and friendliness. From the opening night of Gala 2000, the entertainment, the music that welcomed us to each event, the delicacy of the tea ceremony, the drums, the visits to nearby temples – everything was magnificent and I will treasure my memories of Gala 2000 always.
